

News Media Warned In Panama Crisis

Reuters

PANAMA CITY, Panama, Nov. 22—The military regime yesterday warned Panamanian news media against publishing critical reports amid continued terrorist bomb explosions.

The third terrorist bomb in six days exploded outside the University of Panama last night, plunging part of the campus into darkness, blowing in windows, and sending students diving to the floor for shelter. No one was hurt.

Post 11/23/68